DMCA Notice

The notification process outlined here is consistent with the process set forth by the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (the text of which can be found at http://www.copyright.gov). The following constitutes an Acceptable Notice of Infringement:

1. Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if Multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are infringed by a single notification, a representative list of such works on that site. This includes identification of the specific web pages or site, as opposed to entire sites.

2. Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit SGI to locate the material.

3. A statement that you have a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

4. The following statement: “I certify that the information in this notification is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, I am the copyright owner, or am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.”

5. An electronic or paper signature of the copyright owner, or a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that allegedly has been infringed.

6. Send the written communication to:

   Social Solutions Global, Inc.
   Attn: Legal – DMCA Compliance
   10810 S. Mohave Ck
   Suite 400
   Las Vegas, NV 89136
   Or email to legal@socialsolutions.com

Please include section numbers.

Only copyright owners may report infringements to SGI. If you are not the copyright owner of the infringing works, or you are not authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner, you should not report an infringement to SGI.

COUNTER NOTIFICATION

The provider of the allegedly infringing content may make a counter-notification pursuant to sections 512(g)(1) and (3) of the US Copyright Act. To file a counter-notification with SGI, you must provide a written communication (by mail or email) that sets out the information and format specified in the text below. Please note that you will be liable for damages (including costs and attorneys’ fees) if you materially misrepresent that a product or activity on the infringing work is not infringing of copyrights.

1. Identification of the material that has been removed or access to which has been disabled and the location on the site where the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled.

2. Your name, address, telephone number.

3. The following statement: “I consent to the judicial District Court for the district the federal public domain in which your address is located to receive service of process in connection with your complaint that I submitted infringing copyrights or in connection with any counter-notification or judicial proceeding.”

4. The following statement: “I certify that the information in this notification is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, I am the copyright owner, or am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.”

5. An electronic or paper signature of the copyright owner, or a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that allegedly has been infringed.

6. Send the written communication to:

   Social Solutions Global, Inc.
   Attn: Legal – DMCA Compliance
   10810 S. Mohave Ck
   Suite 400
   Las Vegas, NV 89136
   Or email to legal@socialsolutions.com

Please include section numbers.

The provider of the allegedly infringing content may make a counter-notification pursuant to section 512(g)(1) and (3) of the US Copyright Act. To file a counter-notification with SGI, you must provide a written communication (by mail or email) that sets out the information and format specified in the text below. Please note that you will be liable for damages (including costs and attorneys’ fees) if you materially misrepresent that a product or activity on the infringing work is not infringing of copyrights or in connection with any counter-notification or judicial proceeding. Accordingly, if you are not sure whether certain material infringes the copyrights of others, we suggest that you contact a lawyer.

Last Updated: November 8, 2017.

Copyright © 2017 Norden Privacy Policy / Form Privacy Choices